The Montcalm group's latest five-star offering sits within Whitbread's historic brewery building in Chiswell Street, just across the cobbled courtyard from established event venue The Brewery. While generous in size (the property has 235 bedrooms and nine function rooms) its feel is very much that of a boutique hotel, mixing the original features of the heritage building with modern furnishings. Our pick of the meeting rooms is the Samuel Suite, which seats 43 delegates theatre style beneath a stunning original ceiling, with large windows looking out onto the courtyard. Gastropub kings Tom and Ed Martin run the onsite restaurant and bar, as well as the hotel's room service and event catering.
